Extraordinary General Shareholders' Meeting Resolutions*

1. Introduction of amendments to the Company Charter.

Introduction of the amendments to the Charter of the KazMunaiGas EP JSC (hereinafter – Company) submitted for your consideration is caused by entry into legal force of the Law of the Republic of Kazakhstan 'On Amendments to Certain Legal Acts of the Republic of Kazakhstan Relating to Settlement of Corporate Disputes' dated 5 July 2008. By virtue of this Law, the Company's Charter is amended as it pertains to convening and supplementing the agenda of general meeting of shareholders, challenge of resolutions passed by the Board of Directors, prohibition on transfer of voting right by a member of the management board, disclosure of information on a corporate dispute.

Alongside with that, the Law of the Republic of Kazakhstan On Amendments to Certain Legal Acts of the Republic of Kazakhstan Relating to Financial System Sustainability dated 23 October 2008 the Joint Stock Companies Law has been amended, as per those amendments:

1. some additions have been made to cases when the Company may buy back shares upon request from a shareholder (delisting);
2. a restriction has been imposed regarding representation of shareholders' interests by the Company employees, and some particularities have been put in place as to representation of interests of major and minority shareholders;
3. decision-making on voluntary delisting of the company shares assigned to the competence of general meeting of shareholders;
4. range of issues for decision-making pertaining to the competence of the Board of Directors has been widened. Particularly, it now includes some issues relating to Internal Audit, and also some issues relating to activities/operations which pertain to the competence of general meeting of shareholders (partners) of legal entities whose 10 and more percent of shares (interest in the charter capital) are owned by the Company.

In addition, following the advice of the Samruk Kazakhstan Holding Company for Assets Management JSC, changes are made to sub-clause 12.2.21 of the Charter as pertaining to clarifying administration matters of the legal entities whose 10 and more percent of the shares (interest in the charter capital) are owned by the Company, passing resolutions on which is assigned to the competence of the Board of Directors, by virtue of the Joint-Stock Company Law of the Republic of Kazakhstan.

The above amendments have been reviewed and endorsed by the Board of Directors (Minutes No.27 dated 8 October 2008 and resolution No.16 dated 6 June 2008 respectively).

Pursuant to item 11.1.1 of the Company Charter amendments to the Charter or approval of its new version falls within the competence of general meeting of shareholders.
